

EBURY - FABRIC

An 1850-1870 English design. The original colours were red, green and white upon a black shirting stripe.

The document was found by George Oakes amongst John Fowler's collection of textiles and was introduced as a fabric in the 1950's. Ebury is a glazed chintz available in two colourways – brown, pink.

Composition:

100% Cotton

Use:

Recommended for light domestic use

Repeat:

40.5cm

Printed Width:

133cm

Pricing Available on Request

SIBYL COLEFAX & JOHN FOWLER

89 – 91 PIMLICO ROAD, LONDON SW1W 8PH
TELEPHONE 020 7493 2231